

Learning Journal

This week....we went to Preston Tower to look at the trees. Your children have chosen which photos they want to show you on the website so I will leave it to them to tell you all about the day.

We are on holiday all next week and Monday 31st October is a training day. Have a lovely week with your children. They are all doing really well at school and we have enjoyed a very successful half term with them.